

Tournament OF MY Heart

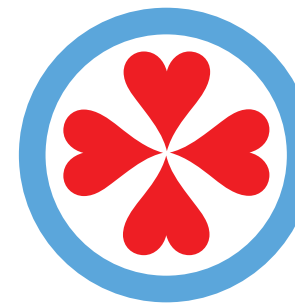

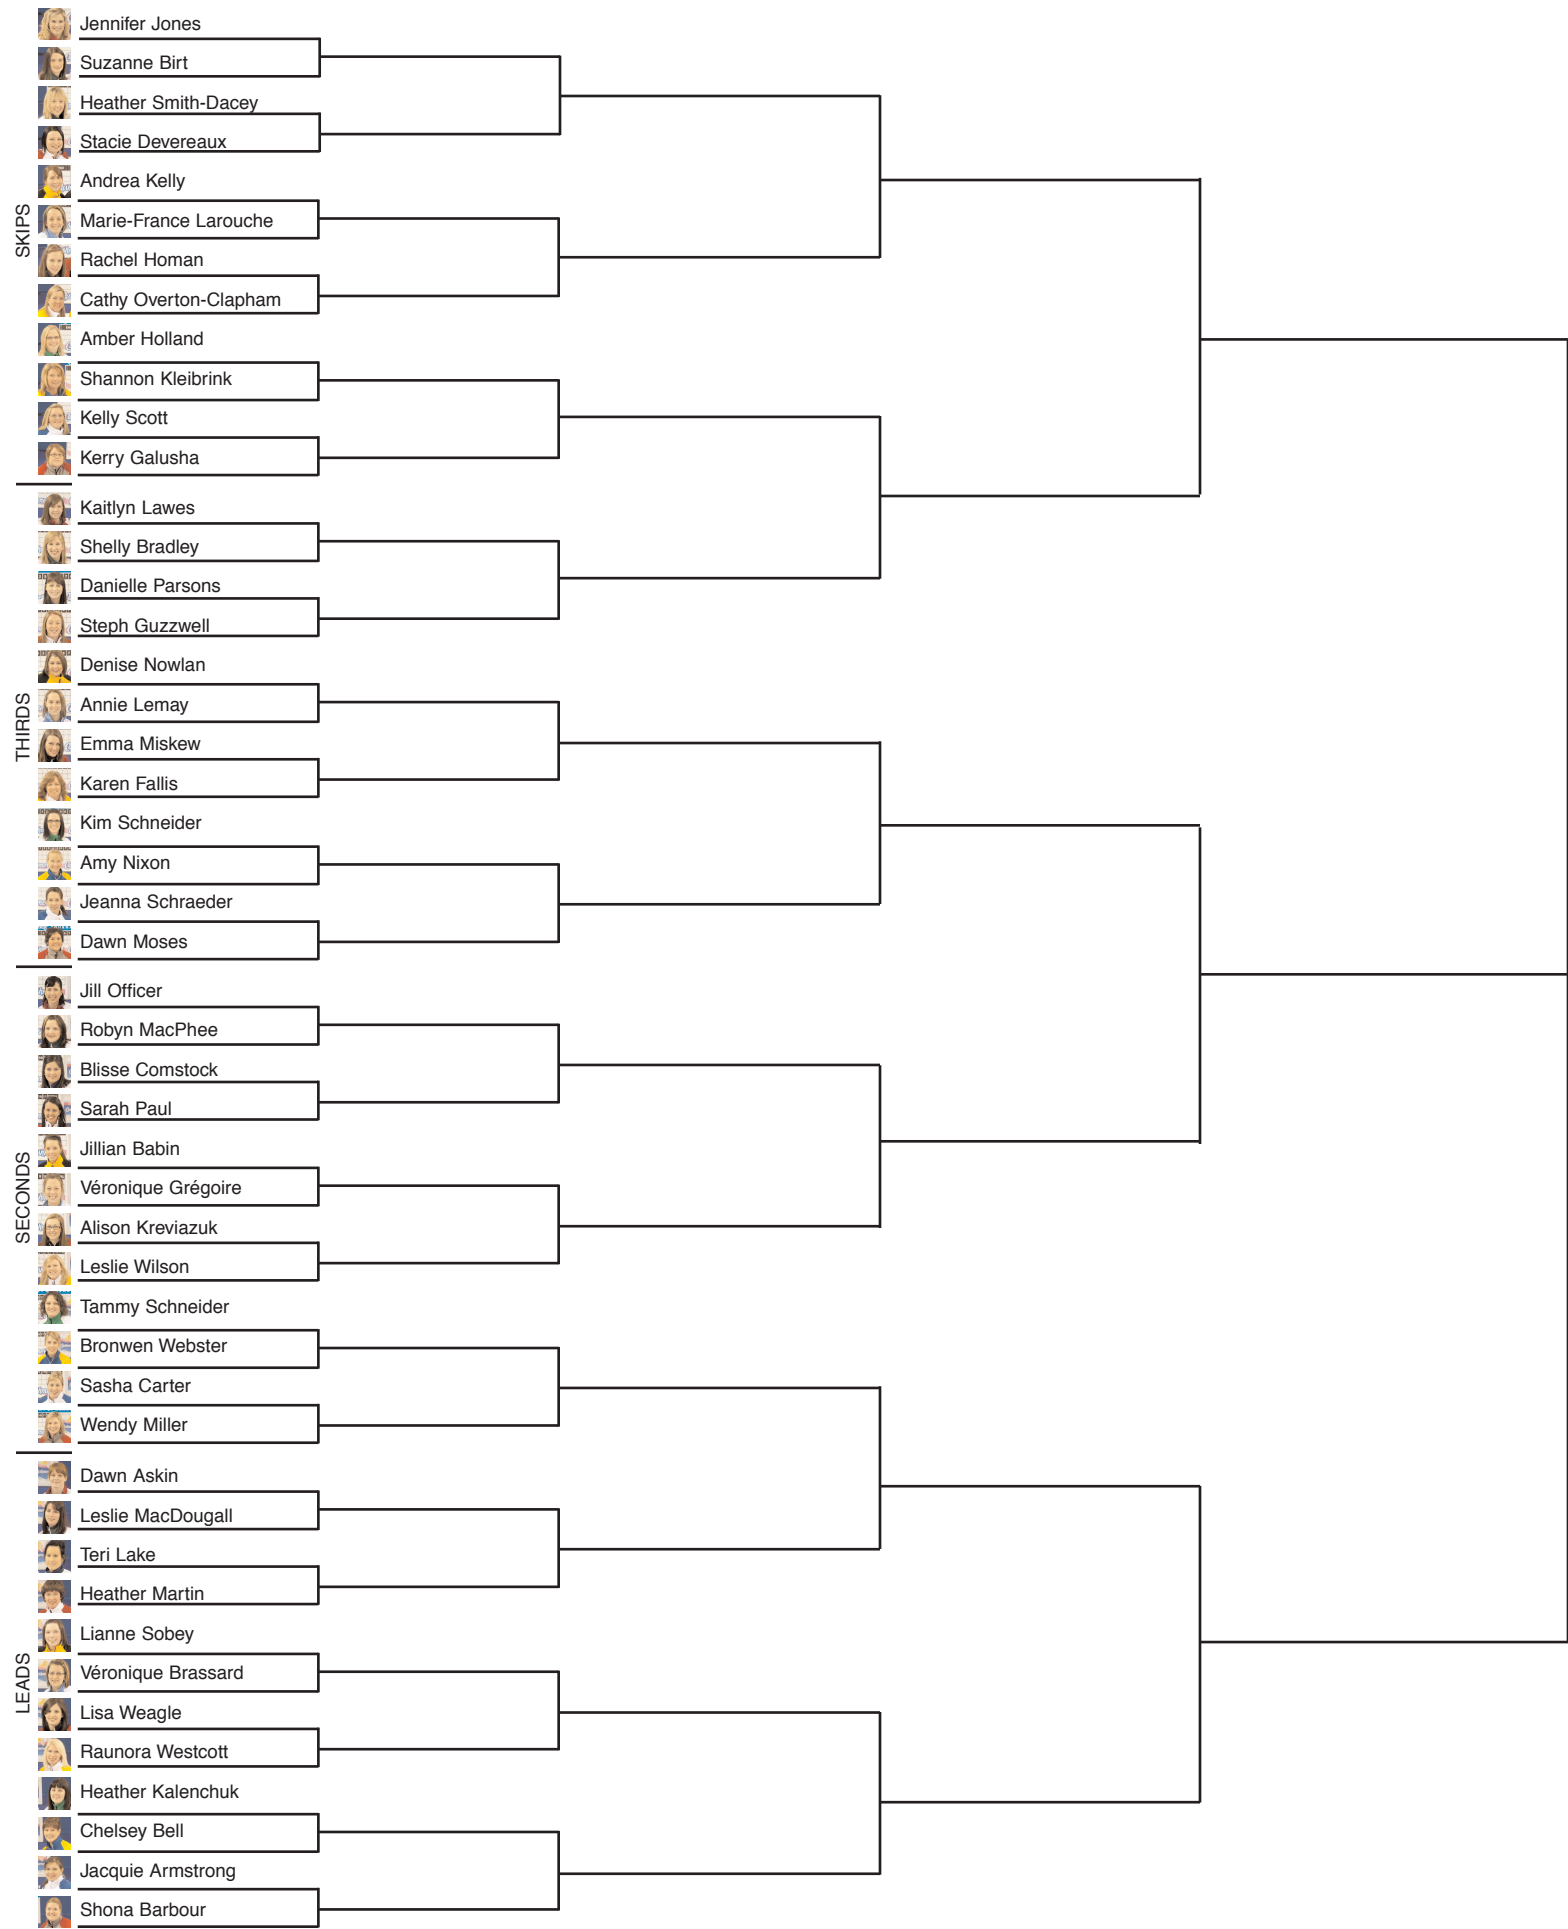

PART ONE: CUTEST BY TEAM

Which of these curling cuties would win if the rink they played on was the icy sheet of my heart?

RULES:

1. Each player in the 2011 Scotties Tournament of Hearts has been seeded twice in this bracket, once by virtue of the team they're one, and once by virtue of the position they play.
2. They are sorted based on the order they appear on the official teams page at curling.ca.
3. As each player faces off against progressively cuter other players, you get to pick a winner. Argue, debate, decide. The photos are just here to aid your memory, feel free to decide based on video, on playing style, or on how gustily they yell "hurry hard" in the game.
4. The final three of each side must face off in a three-way.
5. Have the "team-side" winner face off against the "position-side" winner to proclaim your pick as the cutest of all, as the winner of the Tournament of Your Heart.
